Alus

A handwritten musical score on five staves. The notation is in a historical style, featuring square and diamond-shaped notes. The first staff begins with a large, ornate initial 'A' in blue and red ink, followed by the word 'Alus' in a stylized script. The music is written in black ink on aged, slightly stained paper. The staves are connected by a vertical line on the right side. The notation includes various rhythmic values and rests, typical of early modern manuscript notation.

A single staff of handwritten musical notation. The notation consists of a series of notes, mostly eighth and sixteenth notes, with stems pointing upwards. There are several rests interspersed throughout the piece. The handwriting is in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The notes are written in a cursive, somewhat slanted style. The piece begins with a small clef-like symbol on the left and ends with a decorative flourish on the right.
